Bringing Business to Sawyer County

2010 SCDC Membership Letter

Please consider becoming a member of the SCDC and join in our efforts to foster economic development in Sawyer County. We put your valuable membership dollars to work in the local community – helping your family, neighbors and friends develop sustainable businesses through our network of free services.

We encourage businesses in Sawyer County to join our community of members. As of April 2010, we are 44 member businesses strong and growing. With affordable annual membership fees and distinct categories of membership, the SCDC makes it possible for any business or individual to join.

- During the economic slowdown in 2008, SCDC managed to attract and establish 127 new, full-time, livable wage jobs in Sawyer County by working to establish headquarters for NorthernBridges and Great Lakes Renewable Energy.
- Since January 2009, SCDC has provided in-house financial and business consulting to over 18 new SCDC clients – many being start-up businesses looking to establish in Sawyer County.
- In 2008, SCDC presented “Main Street Marketing” seminars in Hayward, Winter and Stone Lake. SCDC also sponsors Inventor and Entrepreneur Club meetings, which are always free and open to the public.
- SCDC represents Sawyer County businesses annually during Superior Days in Madison, where SCDC lobbies state representatives one-on-one to help spur economic development in the county.
- Your membership dollars are re-invested in the local economy through SCDC’s business counseling services, helping sustain economic growth in Sawyer County.
- Membership dollars help SCDC offer a majority of its services for free to business owners, start-up companies and the general public. SCDC’s expertise ranges from business plan development to financial assistance and counseling.
- Some current SCDC members include:
 - Johnson Bank, Beehive Botanicals, Johnson Timber Corporation, WITC, Hayward Area Chamber of Commerce, Northwoods Community Health Center, Hayward Area Memorial Hospital, Apple Awards, Treeland Resorts, Coop’s Pizza, Xcel Energy, Legend Architecture, and Woodland Developments and Realty
- Your membership support can also be deducted as a business promotional expense for tax purposes
